September 2016 AHS '63 Pre-Newsletter SURVEY

Ringin' You Up

Austin, September 5th, Labor Day. We were patient and waited you out. We actually scored two responses. However, you can do better, so here's the New Deal: A Very TINY 5-question Survey (well, we cheated a little and actually asked more than one question on #3) has been compiled to get some answers. The whole point is to have some participation, without pain, and to produce something that is interesting if not actually entertaining to read about.

AND TAKE THE SURVEY

And we will yes indeedy total up the responses and let you know how it came out next month. Fair enough? Just do it. It might take a whole 5 minutes. There are some playful aspects to the survey that you might even enjoy. Or you might scoff and pshaw. Just get on with it and check some boxes and fill in some blanks. Okay? We're just going to go sit out to the cantina and read a book while we wait you out some more. --TLHH

The Maroon News Page

School is only a couple of weeks old but there was an article you probably haven't read on the newspaper that we hunted up for you so you could KEEP UP with what has already gone on. So to speak. Meet Leo Noblitt Atkins, the Flip Out king. Here.
